2011 Main Stage Shows

The Two Gentlemen of Verona

Feuding friends fall for the same female! (PG)

The Original Practice Taming of the Shrew

The Thrilla in the Villa! Actors are armed only with their memorized lines—no full script, no rehearsals, and no idea of the plot or what roles they're playing (until the crowd chooses for them). None of these "original practice" shows are ever the same! (PG)

Half-Baked Hamlet

"To be or not to be Hamlet, that is the question!" A parody of Shakespeare's most famous play that mixes juvenile cynicism, youthful optimism and a healthy dose of slapstick humor as the youth troupe (and the audience) suffer the slings and arrows of outrageous comedy! (G)

The Winter's Tale

Filled with passion and humor, this tragi-comedy ushers the audience into a Brothers Grimm-like world of cruel kings, wronged children and miraculously reunited families. (PG)

Hamlet, Prince of Denmark

The most famous play in history comes to life in this story of intrigue and horror, madness and murder, betrayal and lust—with a few moments of comic grace to help lighten the load! (PG 13)

Interactive DDDracula

A Monty Python-ish tale where the audience plans the plot. (PG)
